Description

This floor lamp is from the PETITOT company, founded in 1860 by Henri PETITOT, who initially manufactured lighting for churches and public spaces. His son expanded the workshop during the 1930s, producing majestic floor lamps and chandeliers. The model shown here dates from the 1950s and features a bronze base and upper section, a blued gunmetal-colored steel stem and sphere, and brass components. It has a beautiful patina; all you need now is a lampshade to enhance your interior.(sold without the lampshade)
