Description

A two-part Louis XVI style buffet in solid walnut, richly carved and with authentic charm. The piece comprises a lower section with two large doors adorned with magnificent carved ribbon motifs, typical of the 19th century style, and two upper drawers with brass handles. The upper section features a central niche framed by two side columns with molded panels. Above, an elegant glass-fronted display cabinet with crossbars provides space for showcasing tableware, trinkets, or glassware. The upper frieze is decorated with carved garlands, adding further refinement to the piece. The buffet offers generous and well-structured storage space, combining practicality and aesthetics. Its beautiful natural patina highlights the wood grain and testifies to the care taken in its craftsmanship.
