Description

A 1950s/60s wrought iron console table in the style of Jacques Adnet and Hermès. This very interesting console table features worked metal with a leather-like patina. The original patina is in excellent condition, without any retouching. The elegant lines and original fittings are crafted with great skill, without any visible welds. The metal is a perfect illusion, virtually indistinguishable from leather. The original beveled glass top is also in excellent condition. This highly decorative and truly original console table will be a striking addition to any decor, making it a truly unique piece. Delivery is available in France and worldwide via a professional and insured carrier. Collection is also possible at Domaine Avalrich, Montescot 66200, France. Tel: +33 6 11 14 25
