Description

? Antique Mirror with Beveled Corners - Gilded Carved Frame - 19th Century A mirror full of character, with a patina that tells a true story. This superb antique mirror, measuring 70 x 51 cm, is distinguished by its richly carved frame, featuring floral and foliate motifs entirely gilded. The beveled corners give it an elegant, classic look while remaining highly decorative--a silhouette you don't see every day. The Frame: It has a beautiful, warm gilding, slightly patinated, which catches the light in a very soft way. The reliefs are well-defined, deep, and detailed... giving the frame a real presence, even from a distance. It's exactly the kind of piece that transforms a wall simply by being there. The Mirror: The antique glass shows a few small pits--exactly what we love about a mirror that isn't "refinished" or smooth. This creates an atmosphere, a charm, a depth that modern mirrors lack. The reflection is like that in a vintage mirror, with that extra touch of magic that only authentic antiques possess.

Ambiance & Use: Hung in an entryway, it brings light and a touch of whimsy. Above a chest of drawers, it becomes a chic and inviting focal point. In a living room, it adds a classic and elegant touch without ever appearing cluttered.
