Description

Superb Louis XVI style bronze fireplace mantel composed of three elements, dating from the 19th century. The set includes a removable central bar and its two finials. The finials are typically sculpted in the Louis XVI style with a fire pot and floral garlands. In the center is a medallion with a female bust on each side, facing each other. The central bar is highlighted with a row of pearls and surmounted by a very finely chased openwork gallery. Deep and fine chasing of very high quality. A very beautiful set of exceptional quality. Very good overall condition. Height: 29 cm, Depth: 11.2 cm, Maximum length: 107 cm, Minimum length: 69 cm
