Description

A beautiful pedestal table with an ornate base, adorned with four feet and a bulbous stem, made of Cuban red mahogany, English, 19th century, Victorian style. Functional with its generous swivel top of beautiful grain, which closes with a latch and rotates. A piece of great elegance, practical due to its proportions and generous oval, almost round shape. The molded top with its crow's beak is in perfect condition, as is the base, a fine sculpture in a chosen and robust wood. With a beautiful color and a remarkable finish, as only the English can achieve, this table can comfortably seat four. Stable and sound (no parasites in the mahogany), of the quality and condition one could wish for, this easy-to-place side table will prove useful, and folds away compactly. A beautiful piece in very good
