Description

A Japanese six-panel screen painted on paper, depicting Mount Fuji emerging from the clouds, its snow-covered peak set in a soft, atmospheric haze. On the right, dark pines appear faintly, dissolving into the mist. The scene is minimal yet striking, with Mount Fuji dominating the composition through broad, decisive forms. Signed and sealed by the artist in the lower right corner. The reverse is covered with decorated paper featuring a cloud motif. Period: Meiji, late 19th century. Dimensions: 174 × 370 cm. Condition: The screen is in excellent condition. Minor wear, restorations, or small imperfections consistent with age may be present. Two metal pins on the lacquered wooden frame appear to have been replaced.
