Early Spanish rustic table in carved walnut, known as a "winged" table because it folds thanks to its two drop leaves. The carved, undulating, and crenellated legs have two additional supports for the leaves. Dating from the 17th century, this table is in good overall condition and of superb quality. It retains its original hardware and is entirely pegged. Please note: some minor damage to the wood (particularly around the legs), old wormholes, traces of restoration, some stains on the tabletop, scratches, and signs of age. See photos.
