Jean Levasseur (1935-2024), a French figurative painter from Le Havre, dedicated his life to celebrating the beauty of seascapes. With a vibrant palette and a warm touch, he captured the changing light of the Normandy coast, from the jetties of Le Havre to the beaches of Deauville. Settled in the countryside but always looking towards the sea, he painted the shores as one evokes a memory: with sincerity, poetry, and a deep connection to
