Description

19th Century Italy: A very important majolica centerpiece depicting an abundant fruit basket. This large and highly decorative piece showcases a rich composition of pineapples, bananas, grapes, pears, citrus fruits, and other finely sculpted fruits. The vibrant colors and glossy glaze create a very realistic and inviting effect. The sculpting and painting are meticulous, with beautiful reliefs and a highly expressive finish. This is an ideal decorative object for a large table, a sideboard, a kitchen, or a Mediterranean, classic, or vintage style interior. Dimensions: 45 x 49 cm. Condition: Excellent; no visible chips or cracks. An impressive and elegant decorative piece, perfect for adding color and character to any interior.
