Description

Belgium / 1935 / De Coene / Dining room set / wood, leather, silver / Art Deco This exceptional 1935 Art Deco dining room set by the renowned Belgian manufacturer De Coene exemplifies the firm's mastery of luxurious materials, refined craftsmanship, and sculptural elegance. Designed during the height of Belgium's Deco period, the ensemble radiates sophistication and architectural balance. The set includes a generous dining table and an impressive suite of 10 matching chairs. Crafted in richly toned wood, the table features beautifully rounded edges and subtly tapered legs--classic De Coene signatures--enhanced by delicate silver inlay that adds a luminous decorative accent. The craftsmanship is meticulous, with smooth surfaces and precise joinery that speak to the atelier's celebrated heritage. The chairs are upholstered in warm, caramel-colored leather, accented by decorative nails and elegantly contoured backs. Their sculptural profiles and graceful proportions create a harmonious dialogue with the table, resulting in a cohesive and highly refined ensemble. The leather shows a natural, inviting patina that enhances the set's authentic period character.
