Description

A beautiful oil on canvas by Hervé Le Bourdellès depicting a fisherman making his net. The frame shows some wear at the corners. Hervé Le Bourdellès (1928-1986) was a French painter born on August 4, 1928, in Paris. He studied painting and drawing in the studios of Yves Brayer at the Grande Chaumière and Georges Cheyssial at the École Nationale des Beaux-Arts in Paris. His style, often described as "post-impressionist," is distinguished by a subtle use of light and a harmonious palette, adapted to each subject to reveal its emotion and atmosphere. Le Bourdellès traveled and drew inspiration from regions such as Spain, Venice, Tuscany, and Sicily. He taught painting in Paris and organized numerous workshops for young artists. His works, primarily oil paintings,
