PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Navaja Of Albacete, 19th Century

1 700 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Other

Length : 79,2

Description

Superb and large Navaja knife from Albacete, dating from the mid-19th century, with a blade engraved with a cartouche decorated with scrolling foliage on both sides, one side bearing a slogan in Spanish to be deciphered. It features a large spring with a lever-type release mechanism that securely holds the blade. The large brass bolster is decorated with engraved checkering and lines. The black horn handle is inlaid with two long brass bands on each side, along which run micro-studs. The brass tang of the handle is decorated with engraved checkering and lines. This remarkable knife is in very good condition and extremely well preserved. Overall length open: 79.2 cm; Blade length: 36.7 cm; Handle length: 42.9 cm; Closed length: 42.9 cm

Dealer

Intérieurs Singuliers

Bronzes, objets de collection, curiosités, design.

Mobile : 0687782236

126 rue de talant

Dijon 21000