Description

Silver tray. Spanish work by Fray José Espejo y Delgado. Cordoba, 1780. Tray with Rococo-style decoration, made by one of Spain's most renowned silversmiths, active from 1768 to 1821, Fray José Espejo y Delgado. The hallmarks visible on this tray indicate, firstly, the origin of the piece: Cordoba, symbolized by a rampant lion facing left; secondly, the silversmith's mark, in this case Espejo, as well as the silver control hallmarks, where the number 80, corresponding to the date of creation, can be seen. It has undergone restoration
