

Pair Of Small Gilded Wooden Console Tables In Louis XVI Style, Late 19th Century, Napoleon III

1 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gilded wood

Description

This is a pair of Louis XVI-style half-moon console tables from the Napoleon III period, late 19th century, with an onyx veneered top and a carved and gilded wooden frame. These pieces feature typical neoclassical features, such as tapered, fluted legs and refined decorations on the band below. Main Features Style: Louis XVI (Neoclassical). Shape: Half-moon (demi-lune). Details: The band surrounding the top features elaborate decorations, and the legs are typically tapered and fluted, often connected by a central crosspiece with a decorative motif. Original gold leaf gilding, onyx veneered top with green marble insert on the edge -Dimensions: Width 52 cm, Depth 26 cm, Height 79 cm

Dealer

Antichita' Taddei Gilberto

arte antiquariato XVII XVIII XIX SECOLO

Tel : +39 3313821818

Mobile : +39 3313821818

via masini 135

Castelfiorentino 50051