Description

Magnificent baluster-shaped Limoges porcelain vase featuring three cartouches on its body, each containing a bouquet of roses in shades of blue. These rose designs are all unique. The rest of the vase is finished in a deep blue glaze and adorned with motifs highlighted in matte gold. A matte gold rim adorns the base and neck. This exquisite piece is signed Marcadet, a decorator active from 1890 to the early 1900s, who notably exhibited at the 1893 World's Columbian Exposition in Chicago. Shipping within mainland France is EUR30; please contact us for other destinations.
