Description

This vintage Afghan Chobi Ziegler rug is hand-knotted in wool and features a gently washed palette of beige, taupe, and muted red arranged across a balanced botanical design. Its field displays scrolling vines and stylised palmettes rendered in soft vegetable-dyed tones, producing a harmonious pattern characteristic of Chobi/Ziegler workshop production. The wool has a smooth, low pile that enhances motif clarity, and the controlled abrash contributes to a naturally aged appearance without disrupting the overall composition. The border incorporates repeated floral and geometric elements that frame the interior with a calm, orderly structure. Professionally cleaned, the textile presents its colours with renewed softness while retaining the integrity of its handmade construction. Its
