Description

"Branch of the Seine at the Pont Marie," by Felix Claudius (b. 1875), circa 1930. Large painting, silver medalist. Oil on canvas, signed lower right. A truly exceptional size for this artist, who is usually known only for canvases a few tens of centimeters in size. Described as a masterpiece by the private client, as it was purchased by his father from the artist before the war! Provenance: Estate of a private mansion in Autun. Cleaning required! Beautifully crafted frame with a cable for support and rigidity. 19th-century style with a double patina of green and gold.
