Description

Superb Italian chandelier from Veneto, a decorative piece from the 1950s/1970s, composed of six gilt metal arms adorned with molded glass cups and pendants. The chandelier features a beautiful abundance of pendants, several of which are smoked/blackened glass, a characteristic typical of post-war Venetian production. This interplay of clear and smoked glass creates a very elegant lighting effect. Origin: Italy, Veneto region. Period: Circa 1950-1970. Materials: Gilt metal, molded glass. Decoration: Multiple pendants, including smoked glass elements. Number of lights: 6. Electrical system: Functional. Total height: 110 cm. Width: 50 cm. Good overall condition. Complete pendants. Slight original smoke tint on some pendants. The wiring is old but functional.
