

Jean Baptiste Desvignes - Pair Of Painted And Gilded Opaline Bottles - Restoration

720 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Opale

Description

Worldwide free DHL shipping. Pair of bottles Painted and gilded opaline crystal Dimensions: H. 13.5 (cm.) Paris, circa 1820 Pair of bulbous bottles with their soapy opaline stoppers decorated with painted and gilded garlands of flowers. Retailer's label under the base of one. Jean-Baptiste Desvignes Based between 1817 and 1826 at 28 rue de Lancry in Paris, this craftsman can be described as the greatest decorator of crystal, an activity for which he obtained a patent in 1817. The unique feature of his work is the cold application (50°C) of gilding, silvering, and even colors. Condition report: normal wear and tear

Dealer

Schoppmann Art and Antiques

Mobilier, objets d'art et décoration

Mobile : 0666629452

838 chemin de la Lauve

Saint-Raphaël 83700