

Antique Tuareg Dagger With Engraved Blade And Ebony Handle, Late 19th Century

395 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Other

Length : 24.7 cm

Description

A fine Tuareg dagger dating to the late 19th century, originating from the central Sahara (Air region of Niger or Adrar des Ifoghas, Mali).

The dagger has a 14 cm double-edged blade with traditional Inadan geometric line engraving near the forte, typical of Tuareg metalworking. The steel shows good age and an untouched patina.

The crossguard is of the classic Tuareg form with elegantly downturned and curled terminals, decorated with engraved motifs.

The handle is carved from dark ebony, fluted along its length, and finished with a characteristic bi-metal pommel combining metal and dark horn/wood.

A well-balanced example of a personal Tuareg weapon, carried throughout the Sahara in the late 19th century.
