Description

A beautiful sculpture carved from a single block of oak, depicting the bust of the dying Christ. The head of Christ, with his long hair, is inclined to the right, his eyes half-closed and his mouth slightly open. The torso is finely muscled, and on his right side is the open wound inflicted by the lance thrust of Centurion Longinus, confirming his death. The sculpture is enhanced by a warm brown patina. Weight: 4.450 kg.
