Description

Let me explain the title: a couple because they lived together, probably on the same wall since 1905, as written on the back. And they are identical... humble because each is made of three wooden planks, a few turned wooden dowels... and that's it. Humble because they have a long history that has left a few scars. Murals: judging by the back frame. In good condition, without being perfect, they are ready to face their second century if we take a little care of them. The measurements are for each one...
