Description

This tapestry panel was made in the 1960s. It is a cotton print signed by Jean Lurçat. We note several small tears, missing pieces, and stains. Overall, it is acceptable, but not perfect. The colors have remained vibrant. Jean Lurçat (1892-1966) was a French painter, ceramicist, and tapestry designer. He is primarily known for his tapestry work, in which he profoundly renewed the artistic language in the 20th century. Our photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the piece.
