Description

Spectacular mirrors framed by fluted columns of cobalt blue Murano blown glass. They are surmounted by Ionic-style volute capitals in gilded wood, and the whole is crowned by a projecting entablature punctuated by dentils and highlighted by a glass band. The monumental proportions and the interplay of contrast between architectural rigor and the brilliance of Murano glass make this pair a rare and highly decorative piece, bridging neoclassical tradition and Venetian modernity. Exceptional Italian craftsmanship, probably from the 1930s-1940s, combining ornamental mastery and the virtuosity of the Murano workshops. Good overall condition, one small chip. Dimensions: Height 145 cm, Width 135 cm, Depth 20 cm
