Description

Carved wooden side table with a marble top, Napoleon III period. This elegant side table from the Napoleon III period features a superb round top of veined gray marble. The carved wooden tripod base displays rich scrolls and decorative motifs, characteristic of the Napoleon III style, combining elegance and sturdiness. The combination of marble and dark wood creates a harmonious contrast, making it an ideal piece for a living room, entryway, or library. Dimensions: Height: 58 cm Diameter: 90 cm Very good overall condition, with slight signs of age consistent with its age. Carefully packaged and securely shipped.
