

Mahogany And Molded Crystal Whisky Cellar, England, Circa 1930

600 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Mahogany

Description

An elegant English whisky set comprising three molded crystal decanters, each featuring a deeply cut geometric design. Each decanter is adorned with its own blue enameled silver hanging label, indicating Sherry, Brandy, and Whisky respectively, adding a touch that is both functional and decorative. The set is presented in a mahogany tray with a pleasing curve on its sides, resting on a molded base. The top is surmounted by a chromed brass folding handle, allowing for easy opening and handling of the set. The set is equipped with its original, fully functional lock (key missing). A fine example of English liquor services from the 1930s, combining quality materials, decorative refinement, and utilitarian elegance. The set is in very good overall condition.
