Description

Elegant pair of Louis XVI armchairs, crafted in Naples at the end of the 18th century. The lacquered and gilded wood frame features refined floral carvings and flowing lines for a highly aesthetically balanced effect. The oval backrests and contoured armrests lend a sense of lightness to the composition, while the fluted, tapered legs recall the neoclassical purity typical of the period. The armchairs are available for upholstery, offering the option of customizing the upholstery to your taste while preserving the preciousness of the original structure. A magnificent example of late 18th-century Neapolitan craftsmanship, perfect for enhancing classic settings or valuable antique collections. Period: Late 18th century; Origin: Naples; Measurements: Total height 95 cm; Seat height 45 cm; Width 65 cm;
