Description

Elegant oil painting on tinned copper, set in a contemporary carved and gilded wooden frame. The painting depicts a seascape: on the left are rocks on which stands a naval tower, while the waves of a stormy sea crash against the rocks. On the right, a sailboat is visible. This work stands out for its stylistic rendering and skillful use of color, with plays of light that animate the sky and sea. It is a painting of great taste and refinement, capable of decorating any space with class and elegance. Italian manufacture, late 18th century.
