Description

COD 11372 Italian painting from the first half of the 20th century. Oil on canvas artwork, first canvas, depicting a portrait of a young girl with fruit, with good pictorial quality. The painting unfolds vertically, has good luminosity, and is characterized by vibrant colors thanks to the protection of the front glass, which has preserved it well. Signed lower right (see photo), signature under study. This painting is inspired by Charles Chaplin's 1869 Portrait of Miss W., now exhibited at the Musée d'Orsay. Unlike the famous painting, in this artwork, the painter has replaced the cat with fruit (see photo). The wood and plaster frame has several paint drops and signs of aging, requiring restoration or replacement. The canvas is in good condition. Overall, the painting is in fair condition. Internal
