Description

Magnificent Louis XVI period commode in precious wood marquetry, exquisitely crafted, opening with three spacious and perfectly symmetrical drawers, creating the illusion of nine drawers, two of which are without a central divider. The chevron pattern highlights the quality of the marquetry, while the round, ornate bronze handles add a further touch of refinement. The canted corners are highlighted with ebony and lemonwood. It is surmounted by a veined gray marble top, which lends elegance and robustness to the whole. Condition: excellent, very well preserved. Materials: precious wood marquetry, bronze, marble. Functionality: drawers slide smoothly. Style: classic - Louis XVI period / 18th century transition. Dimensions: H85 x W132 x D65 cm. This commode is a
