Description

Silver sliding pendant mirror with Renaissance-inspired niello decoration on both sides. One side features a grotesque mask in the center, surrounded by lambrequins and interlacing patterns. The other has a monogram "TO" engraved on a rose gold cartouche. It has a yellow metal ring and a locking lug tested for 14-karat gold with a touchstone. The interior is silver-gilt. The mirror is flawless and includes its mounting ring. Hallmarks of a boar's head are present on the inside of each side. Note: the upper ring is loose, and there is no bail. Excellent condition. Origin: France, circa 1880.
Dimensions: 7.4 cm x 5.2 cm x 1.3 cm. Weight: 81 g.
