Description

Elegant painted terracotta bust depicting Lorenzo de' Medici, known as the Magnificent (1449-1492). The bust recalls the famous portraits and features of the great Florentine lord, with a thoughtful and austere pose, a prominent nose, half-closed eyes, and long, thick hair. Further refinement is provided by the black paintings on the robe, consisting of small, repeated Florentine lilies. This is a work of great taste and quality, capable of lending a touch of elegance and antiquity to any setting. Florentine manufacture, mid-19th century. Dimensions: H x W x D 63 x 40 x 20cm
