Description

A very fine Louis XV period commode in solid walnut with a marble top. This is a particularly serpentine model, with sinuous, curved front uprights resting on small, acanthus-leafed, snail-shaped feet. The sides are paneled. The three drawers are intricately carved and molded with serpentine shapes. The lower rail is carved with acanthus leaves. It has a thick, molded marble top. The handles, keyhole escutcheons, and locks are original. There are a few minor restorations consistent with age. Dating from the mid-18th century, probably from Italy or the South of France. Delivery in a wooden crate on a pallet by carrier to your ground floor (bulky packaging), EUR300 in France, EUR1000 in the EU, and EUR3000 for the rest of the world.
