Description

A rare and elegant sculpture of Pierrot, entitled "Pierrot's Serenade," crafted in finely patinated and gilded bronze, resting on a Carrara marble base. The work is signed on the base "Gazzan," attesting to its authenticity and quality of execution. The figure, imbued with poetry and sensitivity, delicately illustrates the melancholic character of Pierrot; its posture and finely rendered details demonstrate great sculptural mastery. The subtle combination of patina and gilded highlights enhances the volumes and accentuates the elegance of the composition. Dimensions: Height: 73 cm, Width: 34 cm
