Description

An elegant mahogany writing slope from the English Navy, featuring brass decorations typical of this type of furniture. Beautiful brass ornamentation includes corner brackets and reinforcements, a finely shaped keyhole escutcheon, and a central motif on the top. A medallion bearing the name of the first owner, Stevens, is located in the center. The writing slope opens to reveal two leather sleeves, two inkwells, and a pen holder. It also has a mechanism that, when activated, reveals a trapdoor with three drawers. The two-hook lock is functional and comes with its key. It has a beautiful patina and is in magnificent condition. good quality piece. Delivery available to Belgium, France, and internationally. Viewable in our showroom at 41 Rue Henri Wafelaerts, 1060
