Description

This high-quality oil painting on canvas depicts two figures walking in the snow. It is signed Alekseevna Fedorova. The work has not been prepared or restored; its age-related imperfections must be accepted. We note that the canvas is stretched but not torn in the upper right corner, and there are small chips in the upper left. The frame shows some paint loss, slightly detached corners, and traces of glue at the bottom center. Maria Fiodorova, born in 1859, was a Russian landscape painter. In the last years of her life, she also became interested in iconography. Our photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the work. For condition, please examine the photos carefully.
