Description

Carved wooden side table with marble top - 19th century work Superb, richly carved wooden side table resting on a tripod base adorned with finely crafted winged figures. Each leg represents a fantastical character with a slender body and outstretched wings, reflecting the mythological influences so popular in the 19th century. The round top is made of veined marble, harmoniously matching the warm, deep patina of the wood. A decorative piece of character, ideal for a living room, library, entryway, or collector's home. Dimensions: Height: 65 cm Diameter: 70 cm Very good overall condition, with a beautiful original patina. Careful shipping available.
