Description

COD 11424 French chest of drawers from the mid-20th century. A curved, moved Louis XV-style furniture, beautifully inlaid with a geometric motif in walnut, mahogany, and rosewood. The chest of drawers features an original, good-sized marble top. The commode is richly adorned with gilded and chiseled bronze, and features two spacious front drawers. A visually striking furniture, ideal for a bedroom or living room, for antique dealers and interior decorators. Complete with a key for locking both drawers, this dresser is structurally sound and solid. In good condition. As each of our products it will be accompanied by a certificate of authenticity and guarantee with photographic documentation.
