PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Pair Of Officer's Chairs Consulate Empire Period Silk

2 250 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Painted wood

Description

Pair of officer's armchairs in re-lacquered wood, with rounded, recessed armrest supports to allow seating with a saber or sword. The front legs terminate in lion's paw feet. Fully pegged. Consulate period, late 18th/early 19th century. These armchairs are in very good condition, solid and stable. They have been completely reupholstered using traditional methods and covered in a superb silk with a placed pattern. One of the armchairs has two traditional reinforcements. There are some repairs and losses to the lacquer. Width: 57 cm Height: 93 cm Seat height: 41 cm

Dealer

Accents Baroques

Jean François MARTIN - Antiquaire généraliste

Tel : 0675245191

Mobile : 06 75 24 51 91

9 route de Clermont

Brignac 34800