Description

Cubist composition on cardboard by Charles Merangel, an artist of the School of Paris also known for his work as a production designer for filmmakers such as Lelouch, Alain Resnais, and Henri Verneuil. This vertical composition appears to represent a stylized figure, probably a female character seen in profile within an interior. The color palette is dominated by warm, earthy tones, and a touch of vibrant red, in the form of a triangle, creates a chromatic contrast that enlivens the entire composition and draws the eye to this central element. Gouache on cardboard, signed lower right, in good condition, within a gilt frame. Image size: 24.2cm x 13cm. Framed size: 32cm x 22cm. Shipping costs extra.
