Description

Octagonal, as it should be! This massive baptismal font, made of limestone, dates from the late 16th to early 17th century. Sculpted with gadrooned decoration, it rests on a large console-shaped base. It is offered with its rare bronze and wooden lid. This imposing baptismal font lid, which perfectly fits the font, is likely of 18th-century Spanish origin. Minor imperfections, but in good overall condition. Such a piece is rarely found for sale. The font measures 103 cm in height and 82.5 cm in diameter. The lid measures 86 cm in diameter and 22 cm in height. Weighing over 200 kg, it comes in two pieces. Reference 107
