Description

Italian walnut wood screen produced between the 1970s and 1980s, composed of approximately 560 wooden elements connected by metal pins. The ends of the pins are fitted with brass knobs that complete the structure and contribute to its overall stability. Its modular construction allows the piece to fully extend to approximately 352 × 134 × 1.5 cm. The total weight is about 50 kg, consistent with the materials and type of object. The screen bears no maker's marks or attribution and is in good condition, showing minor signs of wear consistent with age and use.
