Description

Exceptional modernist desk manufactured by MIM Roma in the 1960s, an iconic example of post-war Italian design. This piece exemplifies the company's signature approach: technical innovation, architectural lines, and refined materials executed with precision.
The generously proportioned top features a subtle organic curve and is crafted in richly toned fine wood veneer, beautifully preserved. It is supported by a sculptural black-lacquered metal frame with sharply profiled legs and stainless-steel feet, echoing the elegant industrial aesthetic typical of the period.
Suspended beneath the top, the characteristic MIM storage module includes several meticulously crafted wooden drawers with a distinctive vertical central divider. This floating
