Description

Pair of Large Italian Gilded Sconces With Sunflowers and Scrolls from 1700 Arms For Votive Lamps made with an important wrought-iron scrolling structure with a square cross-section and decorated with embossed and gilded copper vegetal and floral motifs. At the top of these original 18th-century lamp arms is the ferrule for a candle while at the lower end we see the hook for hanging the chain for the votive lamp. They are oversized and protrude 110 cm from the wall, suitable fos castle lighting.Hidden behind the large embossed oval decoration there are two hooks for hanging on the wall. Northern Italy, this unique pair of sconces is fully handmade and dates from the first half of the 1700s.Period: 1700Height: 61 cmWidth: 35 cmDepth: 110 cm
