Description

A very important and prestigious Louis XV period Lyonnaise armoire - hand-carved - an exceptional centerpiece crafted from solid walnut, showcasing a remarkable level of carving, molding, and refinement. Its magnificently worked façade reveals a rich decoration: scrolls, flowers, medallions, and volutes, all hand-carved with great finesse, characteristic of the finest 18th-century workshops. The pediment and triple-folded cornice crown an imposing shell carved with a bird depicted in a still-life style. The curved panels and the deep original patina lend this piece a rare presence and incomparable charm. Key features: A genuine, authentic, and highly decorative Louis XV Lyonnaise armoire; very high-quality solid walnut with a warm and even patina; deep and delicately detailed
