

Satsuma Porcelain Dinner Service Part

650 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Porcelain

Description

An elegant and unusual porcelain dinner service made in Japan in the late 19th century. Satsuma porcelain was created in the 16th century and became popular in Europe in the late 19th century, where it was imported. It combines white and ivory, onto which decorative painters apply floral motifs in relief. Very high quality. This set provides a complete place setting for 11 or 12 if soup is not included. The set comprises 12 dinner plates, 11 soup plates, 12 dessert plates, 1 vegetable dish, 1 serving bowl, 1 oval platter, and 1 cold gravy boat.
