Description

Large wall console in carved and gilded wood, made in the 20th century in an elegant Rococo style. It features a rich decoration of floral garlands, acanthus leaves, and openwork scrolls. A finely carved central shell adorns the apron, and another is depicted on the stretcher. The white marble top with gray veining and a scalloped edge harmonizes beautifully with the gilding. A striking decorative piece, ideal for enhancing a hall, living room, or refined space.
