Description

Elegant mid-19th-century bedside cabinet from the Veneto region, crafted in solid walnut with a beautiful original patina. The front features three spacious drawers with turned knobs; the top drawer retains its original lock. The sides are adorned with fluted pilaster strips, adding verticality and refinement to the piece. The slightly protruding, moulded top sits above turned flattened-ball feet, characteristic of Venetian craftsmanship of the period. Excellent condition, showing minimal wear consistent with age and authenticity; sturdy structure and well-preserved finish.
