

Coral Floor Lamp By Pallucco Italy

780 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Diameter : 60

Height : 175

Description

A stunning contemporary floor lamp with a sculptural design inspired by the organic forms of coral. Its airy structure, composed of interwoven rods of robust polymer, diffuses a soft and warm light. A few red branches add a graphic and unusual touch, giving the piece a unique character. The floor lamp rests on a lacquered metal base, ensuring stability and elegance. It features integrated internal lighting and functions perfectly; the diffuser is made of white opaline glass. A high-end light fixture, ideal for enhancing a modern interior, a designer collection, or an architectural space.
